DESTRUCTIVE FLAMES.

STEEL WORKS AT SYRACUSE, NEW YORK, DESTROYED BY FIRE.

Two Fires Raging at the Same Time—Memphis, Tennessee, Threatened—Runners of Loss of Life—The Result of Going to Bed With a Pipe—Other Losses by Fire.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., March 29.—About 1:30 o'clock this morning the roof of the Sander-son Brothers' steel company's works in the Ninth ward were found to be on fire, and in a short time the strong wind blowing at the time had spread the flames to every part of the extensive works. About half a dozen men were present preparing the furnaces for work to-day, but they were unable to fight the fire with any effect.

At the time a steamer was at work on another fire half a mile away, and before a stream could be cast upon the steel works nothing except to prevent a spreading of the destruction to other buildings was possible. The fire is said to have caught from gas used for heating the furnaces. The wind drove the burning gas back into the supply pipe where it burst open a branch section, allowing a steady blast to be cast upon the building, setting it on fire. The roof was wholly burned and some of the brick walls were tipped over, but the furnaces and tall brick stacks used to furnish draught are left standing in the ruins. The loss will depend much on the condition in which the machinery and furnaces are found to be. It is now believed that it will be from 75 to 100 per cent. of the insurance, which amounts to $55,000. The works are owned by an English company and will be at once rebuilt.

A Hotel in Flames.

WABASH, Ind., March 29.—At 3:30 Sunday morning a baby began crying in the Lutz house, awakening the proprietress, Mrs. M. A. Newman, who discovered that the hotel was in flames. In spite of all the building burned, the loss being nearly $25,000 with an insurance of $14,000. Mr. Calvin Zell and family, of Cincinnati, who occupied a suite of rooms on the second floor, barely escaped with their lives. Their little daughter was saved by Frank Horning, a C. W. & M. engineer, who leaped from the third story to the veranda and caught the girl just as she was about to jump from the window. Over a dozen persons had narrow escapes. Noble work by the fire department prevented a terrible conflagration.

Memphis Threatened.

MEMPHIS, March 29.—Fire broke out in a building on the corner of Main and Wash-ton streets and is now raging furiously. The indications are that great destruction to property will result before it can be extinguished. The fire department have thus far kept the flames confined to the immediate neighborhood of its origin, but it looks as if one-half of the square, at least, is doomed. There is excitement over rumors that a number of people were sleeping in the building when the fire started, but thus far there is nothing to justify the belief that any lives have been lost.

Cotton Seed Oil Mill Burned.

RALEIGH, N. C., March 29.—The extensive cotton seed oil and fertilizer mills here, the finest in the south, save those at Columbia, S. C., were burned this morning. The new oil mill was built last year. Its capacity was 2,400 gallons daily. The capacity of the fertilizer mill was seventy-five tons daily. Last autumn the mills were acquired by the Cotton Seed Oil Trust company. The loss is $50,000. The mills will be rebuilt at once. Four firemen were injured by falling walls.

Fatal Fire.

CLEVELAND, March 29.—A small saloon and boarding-house on Main street mysteriously took fire at 3 o'clock this morning. The loss would not have been great if the building had burned entirely down; yet the house was saved, while Phyllis Reisenaker was suffocated by smoke, Conrad J. Mahoney nearly so, and may die. Mrs. Louis Rahn was severely burned while rescuing her baby from the upper story, and ten other persons, four of them children, narrowly escaped being burned alive.

River Packet Burned.

MEMPHIS, March 29.—News has just been received that the steamer Chesapeake, burnt at New Madrid, Mo., Saturday, and is a total loss. The mates is in charge of the wreck. Capt. Hall, the owner, has entered protest, and will come to Memphis by the first boat. The Chesapeake was a Memphis and Tiptonville semi-weekly packet, valued at $20,000. Insured for $15,000.

BURNED TO DEATH.

An Eighty-Year-Old Lady Goes to Bed With a Pipe, and Dies Shortly After.

CINCINNATI, March 29.—Mrs. Nancy Corcoran, a widow eighty years of age, living with her daughter, Rose Delahanty, at 39 Concord street, Walnut Hills, met with an accident yesterday afternoon which caused her death a few hours later. The old lady had been accustomed to smoking tobacco in a clay pipe, and would frequently lie down in bed for a nap with a lighted pipe in her hand. Yesterday afternoon she lay down for her customary nap in the rear room on the second floor, and carelessly laid the pipe on the bedclothing beside her. The occupants of the first floor were soon aroused by a loud smell of burning clothing, and rushing to the old lady's room, found her enveloped in flames. Engine company No. 16, was summoned and the fire extinguished before much damage had been done to property. Mrs. Corcoran, however, was found to be badly burned about the face, body and arms.

Dr. Evans, of McMillan street, was summoned, and after an examination expressed it as his opinion that the injured lady, owing to her advanced age, could not recover. She had inhaled the flames, and lingered until half-past 8 o'clock last evening, when death came to her relief. The coroner was notified and will hold an inquest, although no blame is to be attached to any person, the affair being the result of the victim's carelessness. Only a few days ago Mrs. Corcoran's clothing was ignited in the same manner, but the flames were extinguished before she had been injured. Since that time a close watch had been kept on her, but in spite of this the accident happened, resulting in her death.

MR. ROOSEVELT RETURNS.

He Talks Entertainingly About European Matters Generally.

NEW YORK, March 29.—Mr. Theodore Roosevelt and wife have returned home from their wedding tour on the Etruria. A few days after the contest for the mayoralty last fall, Mr. Roosevelt sailed for England to meet his fiancée, Miss Edith Carow, of this city, to whom he was married in England in January. They traveled extensively on the continent, but spent most of the time in England. Mr. Roosevelt is looking as bright and hearty as if he had just returned from a three months' outing on his Dakota ranch, and received a reporter yesterday afternoon at his home on Madison avenue. The young Republican leader said he was glad to renew his acquaintance with his friends and American newspaper reporters, and added that the representatives of English newspapers had been uniformly kind in their notices of his doings, as their American brethren have always been.

"In fact," said Mr. Roosevelt, "I was very handsomely received everywhere in England, and met all the English political leaders from the premier down to Healey—men of all political parties and policies. English politics is a series of groups, all of which are divided on one side or the other of the home rule question. Did I meet the grand old man? No; he was only one English statesman whom I did not meet."

"What are the chances for Irish independence?"

"Oh, I wouldn't even venture to guess. I think a reaction has set in against the movements since the agitation of last year. In fact, I don't think the Parnellites would be willing just now to venture their success on a general election."

"What about the war scare?"

"The most remarkable thing I noticed about that was the self-satisfied feeling in case war should come that was shown on the part of the French army in comparison with that of the civilian population. The mass of French people outside of the army are really and truly afraid of war. The army, however, was fully equipped, and in the event of a declaration of war would have gone on the field with a bold front."

Mr. Roosevelt congratulated himself upon his good fortune in escaping the terrors of the earthquake in the Riviera.

Killeen and Cardiff Will Not Fight.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., March 29.—Killeen and Cardiff will not fight, at least not for the present. Their managers failed to agree upon the terms of the proposed fight, and the whole business has fallen through. The date of the fight seems to have been the sticking point. Cardiff's manager wanted the privilege of naming the date after his fight with Sullivan. To this Killeen's manager would not agree. Professor Donaldson said to-day that Cardiff was ready to fight Killeen anyway or for any amount, but that they would not name the date of the fight until after the Sullivan-Cardiff meeting, because there was a possibility that Cardiff might get injured in his fight with Sullivan, so that he would not be able to meet Killeen if a certain time was specified in the articles of agreement.

Senator Lapham Seriously Ill.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 29.—Col. Charles F. Crocker, vice-president of the Southern Pacific company, has received a dispatch from C. P. Huntington, of New York, stating that the purchase of the Southern Pacific Coast railway (narrow gauge) had been concluded with Senator James G. Fair. The papers are now on their way to this city, and until they arrive nothing can be learned of the terms. The rumor is again revived here that the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe railroad, has gained control of the Pacific Coast railroad (narrow gauge), which operates between Port Harford and Las Animas, via San Luis Obispo, a distance of sixty-four miles.

Not Very Destitute.

HARTFORD, Conn., March 29.—Dr. E. B. Hooker, son of Isabella Beecher Hooker, when asked about the Sun's story to the effect that Mrs. Hooker was not allowed to enter Henry Ward Beecher's house during his last illness, said that the statement that she was staying with her brother, Dr. Edward Beecher, and also that his mother did not write letters to Mrs. Beecher asking admittance to the house. The Sun's statement that she was in pressed circumstances, as said, was false. Her husband is a reporter of the supreme court and draws a salary of $4,000 a year.

Sprinting Race.

SYDNEY, N. S. W., March 29.—The first race in the match arranged between L. E. Myers, the champion American sprinter, and W. C. George, the English sprinter, to take place in this city, was won by Myers. The distance was a thousand yards. Myers finished six yards ahead of George, and covered the distance in two minutes and nineteen seconds. The match is for $1,000 a side, and comprises three races, viz: One thousand yards and 1,250 yards and 1,500 yards, the winner of two races to be awarded the stakes and match.

INDIANAPOLIS, March 29.—J. D. Campbell this afternoon purchased the Indiana, Bloomington & Western railway at the foreclosure, paying $3,000. He represents a committee of the bondholders. There was no competition. The road will be reorganized as the Columbus, Indiana & Western.

An Illegal Assignment.

HARRISBURG, Pa., March 29.—The supreme court of this state has just decided that an assignment of wages to a storekeeper as security for purchases of goods, before the wages are earned, is illegal and void, and that the employee making such assignment can recover the money.

THE $10,000 YACHT RACE.

MR. BUSCH'S SCHOONER CORONET WINS THE PRIZE.

The Remarkable Sailing of the Winning Vessel—The Slow Dauntless Left Behind at the Rate of a Mile an Hour—The Dauntless Sighted Off Galleyhead.

QUEENSTOWN, Ireland, March 29.—The great $10,000 race between the Coronet and Dauntless ended yesterday in victory for Mr. Busch's schooner Coronet. The yacht crossed the winning line forty minutes past noon, the run from start to finish having been made in fourteen days, nineteen hours, three minutes and fourteen seconds, actual time. The distance sailed was 2,949 nautical miles. The Coronet made an average of nearly 250 miles per day. The longest day's run was 291 1/2 miles, the shortest 38.8.

The passage across was a most stormy one, but no accident occurred beyond a few rents in the sails and some broken tackle. Capt. Crosby, of the Coronet, it will be remembered, had the advantage at the start in getting away nearly half a mile ahead of the Dauntless. This advantage was held throughout. The Dauntless was left behind at the rate of a mile an hour. The Coronet chose a route rather more northerly than is usually deemed safe, owing to ice, but none was sighted. It was Capt. Crosby's first race, and he says it might have been sailed quicker had he availed himself of the full sail power of the yacht, but this he did not think advisable, owing to the prevalent storms. The race has demonstrated the speed superiority of the new style yachts over the old models.

The great peril of a race of such a character at this season of the year is aptly illustrated by this passage from the note-book of one of the correspondents aboard: "In discussing around our mess-table the possible dangers of crossing the Atlantic during the stormy month of March, we gathered the cheering information that all the reporters had been requested to write their own obituaries before sailing; and, upon further comparing notes, found we had all been refused policies by different life insurance companies."

When the yacht crossed the winning line at Roche's Point, and was signaled she had won the great race, there was great excitement and joy on board. She carried twenty-nine persons, all told. The result of the race is a surprise to the sporting people, all the betting odds having been largely in favor of the Dauntless and her race-winning skipper, Capt. Samuel.

Mr. Busch will challenge Mr. Colt for a race back.

The Dauntless crossed the imaginary line designated as the finishing point of the ocean race by actual time precisely twenty-three hours and forty minutes behind the Coronet. The experience of those on board set at naught that of the crew and guests on the Coronet. They say that the Dauntless being the smaller vessel she was pitched about in a most bewildering way, and to prevent her from foundering she was hoisted to several times. Her sails were split and lost, and the rigging was parted several times by the heavy strain put upon it. Capt. Samuel and the crew are badly used up by the shaking they received.

The defeated yacht Dauntless was not sighted off Roche's Point until 4:30 o'clock this afternoon. She was then five miles south-west of Roche's Point and was bowling along under a full spread of canvas before a light southwest wind.

A number of steam yachts and crafts of all kinds are now assembled in the harbor awaiting her and will give her a hearty reception.

How the News Was Received in New York.

NEW YORK, March 29.—The receipt of the news of the arrival of the Dauntless off Cork harbor this morning caused much rejoicing among the yachtsmen. The race is the topic of the hour, and every one accedes the Coronet to be a wonderful boat. Her present record of fourteen days, nineteen hours and three minutes in crossing the ocean, considering the terrible weather she encountered, is looked upon as wonderful. The fastest record was made by the Henrietta in the famous race with the Fleetwood and Vesta, December, 1894. The time made by the Henrietta was thirteen days and twenty-two hours, and her best run was 271 miles, or 205 miles less than the Coronet's best day. This old yachtsman says, would have certainly been beaten but for the tempestuous weather the Coronet encountered.

The news of the arrival of the Dauntless reached E. T. Rush, the owner of the winning craft, shortly after 9 o'clock. It was conveyed to him by a United Press reporter. Mr. Rush was seated in his private office at his place of business on Pearl street. "I regret," he said, "the race was not closer. I felt certain all along that the Coronet could out sail the Dauntless, and I looked for a closer contest." Mr. Rush took the victory of the Coronet in a most matter-of-fact way. A pile of letters and telegrams lay on his desk containing congratulations of his friends. These came from all parts of the world, including two from Queenstown and one from Australia. Among them was one from Lieut. Henn, of the Galatea.

NEW YORK, March 29.—Mr. Blaine attended service at Dr. Paxton's church Sunday, and in the afternoon took a walk up Fifth avenue and called at the house of a friend. He received a few callers in the evening but retired early. He took the 9 a. m. train Monday on the Pennsylvania railroad for the west.

Judge Force Resigns.

CINCINNATI, March 29.—Judge Manning F. Force has sent his resignation to Governor Foraker on account of ill health, and it is supposed the governor will appoint his successor. Judge Force's term expires this spring.

Furious Hail Storm.

GRENADA, Miss., March 29.—At 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon a furious hail storm from the west struck this town. Early garden plants were destroyed, and the sprouting foliage of the trees was cut off.

Ministerial Call Accepted.

BOSTON, March 29.—Dr. Meredith, of the Union Congregational church, has accepted a call to the Tompkins avenue Congregational church, Brooklyn.

Cattle in Montana Winter-Killed.

CHICAGO, March 29.—A correspondent writing to the Inter-Ocean from Bozeman, Mon., says: Now that the winter has, to all appearances, passed, we can approximate very close to the actual mortality among the range stock during the past winter. The death rate among cattle, especially, is wonderful. There is no doubt at all but that fully one-half of the cattle on the ranges throughout the territory have died during the past severe winter. There is not a single range but that the death rate is fully that great, and a great many of them will equal three fourths, or 75 per cent. With sheep and horses the loss is not near so heavy as among the cattle, but still the loss is great. Among horses and sheep on some ranges it is reported that one-half of the horses have died, and that sheep are still dying by the hundreds.

Crooked Whisky Ranch Raided.

ST. LOUIS, March 29.—Deputy United States Marshal Wheeler, of St. Louis, raided a crooked whisky ranch about two miles from New Malls, Mo., yesterday. Peter Niling, an old offender, seventy years of age, was arrested, and in a false cellar was found eighty gallons of fine old whisky and a worn, tub, furnace, etc., for the manufacture of the "Mountain Dew." Niling has been arrested twice before, and was released the first time on the plea of ignorance of the law, the second time on failure of evidence, and it looks as if death will save him this time. The "tip" was given by a co-laborer, who asked for $2,000 for his point, but received only enough to draw the necessary information out of him.

A Bark Suddenly Disappears.

HALIFAX, March 29.—Capt. Fye, of brigantine Daisy, which arrived from Jamaica yesterday, reports on the 17th inst., latitude 29, longitude 70, weather dark and squally, saw a bark of about 800 tons under all available sail heading northeast by north. The brigantine was under short canvas. A heavy gale came, and he hoisted to under mainstays sail. The squall was a very heavy one, and lasted fifteen minutes. After it abated nothing could be seen of the bark. He supposed she capsized and sank. Capt. Fye sent men aloft, but they could see no trace of the vessel. Before the squall came on the captain observed to his mate that the bark was carrying too much sail for such squally weather.

Henry George at Chicago.

CHICAGO, March 29.—Henry George, who is to deliver his lecture on "Land and Labor" at Central Music Hall arrived here this morning. He held quite a levee at the Grand Pacific, among his visitors being the promoters of the "Henry George" clubs recently formed in this city, and who were desirous of securing his advice as to the preparation of the by-laws and principles of the body. Incidentally it was stated that the name "Henry George Club" had been voted down at a recent meeting in favor of the "Land and Labor Club," but that the old name would be replaced at the next meeting.

Can't Fill the Strikers' Places.

NEW ORLEANS, March 29.—It was generally believed and universally hoped that a solution of the difficulty between the old and the new Cotton Men's councils would be reached yesterday, and that work in the presses, which was suspended on Thursday, would be resumed to-day, but the opposing elements failed to agree. No cotton can be moved, as the new council, which is on strike, embraces in its organization a class of skilled labor which cannot be dispensed with in handling the staple and which cannot be replaced.

Schooner Ashore.

SANDY HOOK, N. J., March 29.—The wrecking schooner Rapidan, belonging to the Merritt Wrecking company, while coming in from the wrecked steamship Scotia, having no cargo, and during a dense fog which prevailed this morning, went ashore about 4 o'clock one mile south of Monmouth beach life saving station. The craft lies easy. She is high and dry and wholly unharmed. A dense fog still prevails but the sea is comparatively smooth and there is every chance of saving the schooner.

Contributing to Beecher's Monument.

BROOKLYN, March 29.—At a meeting of prominent Hebrews in Temple Israel $2,000 was subscribed toward the proposed monument to Henry Ward Beecher. Many addresses were made, in which Mr. Beecher's manly stand in favor of justice to the Jewish race was gratefully remembered. Rev. Dr. Armitage, of the Fifth Avenue Baptist church, New York, preached in Plymouth church in the morning, and Rev. Dr. Powell, of the Home Missionary society, in the evening.

Shot Himself in a Safe.

PITTSBURGH, March 29.—At 7:30 o'clock this morning Charles F. Froch, policy examiner for the Germania Insurance company, of this city, entered the safe in the office and seating himself in a chair shot himself through the head. He was found an hour later quite dead. He had been in the company's employ for eighteen years. A year ago he made an attempt to kill himself while despondent. Froch is fifty-three years of age, and leaves a widow and five children.

How General Quincy Died.

BOSTON, March 29.—The melancholy fact has become known that Gen. Samuel M. Quincy, who died on Thursday at Keene, N. H., and who was buried to-day in this city, took his own life. Gen. Quincy, it is said, was a victim of the opium habit, and in a fit of despondency blew out his brains.

New Brunswick on the Verge of a Panic.

ST. JOHN, N. B., March 29.—New Brunswick is face to face with the greatest financial crisis in its history. The failure of the Maritime bank, involving the loss of $1,500,000, and of the great lumber firms of the Stewarts, Guy Bevan & Co., and George McLeod, is only a premonition of what is coming. It is only a question of days when a great many business firms, both large and small, must go under.

Woman Suffrage in Kansas.

TOPEKA, Kan., March 29.—At the coming town election in Stockton, Kan., all the candidates, including mayor, council, etc., are women, and only women will vote. The men are going to stand aside and let the women run things for awhile to see how woman suffrage works.

TUESDAY EVEN'G, MARCH 29, 1887.

THE Republicans, of Fayette County, didn't instruct for Colonel Billie Bradley for Governor. Some of the leaders, at Lexington, are evidently after the Colonel's scalp.

LEXINGTON is enthusiastically in favor of subscribing $200,000 to the Kentucky Union Railroad, but the people of Fayette County, it is thought, will not shout as loud for it.

GENERAL BUCKNER is gradually swinging around the circle, and he and his friends are still confident that he is leading his competitors in the gubernatorial campaign. A few weeks more will settle it.

GENERAL BUCKNER and Senator Harris seem to have profited by the advice given them by some of our exchanges, and have dropped personalities. They have found that that plan wasn't working well.

In a speech at Lexington the other day, Senator Harris said that the Madison County boys are always winners, and that when they start out to get there, they get there some way. By way of illustration, he said that his county has about 2,200 Democratic voters, but that in a close race they would muster 2,300, in a very close race 2,400, and in an emergency 2,500.

If we understand the matter correctly, Mr. Gooding, the Democratic nominee for Representative, is not opposed to the re-election of James B. Beck to the U. S. Senate. The effort, however, on the part of certain persons to have him pledge himself to support Senator Beck, was not just what Mr. Gooding considered the proper thing under the circumstances.

He preferred to go to Frankfort free and untrammelled, so that he might act in the matter as he thought the people of Mason County would have him act. His course certainly is commendable.

In the gubernatorial campaign, on the Democratic side, one thing is evident, and that is that Senator Harris' speeches are making him friends. He spoke at Stanford the other day, and the Interior Journal says that "the speech was a really excellent one, dignified, sensible and pointed. His strongest opponent could have found no fault with his gentlemanly handling of his competitors, while his friends were more than pleased to see him set at rest in so manly and able a manner the silly charges that have been invented to injure him. He evidently made a very fine impression and added to his list of supporters."

A Card From Mr. Wensel.

INDIANAPOLIS, IND., March 27, 1887.
 Editor Bulletin—Maysville, Ky.: The article published by the Owen County Democrat, and republished by you a few days ago, does me great injustice, and, in the name of justice, I ask you to give this, space in the columns of your valuable paper.

It is true that I left Owenton, but I had a perfect right to do so, and packed my valise and left between eight and nine o'clock p. m., and did not conceal the fact from any one.

The statement that I "done the boys up for $100" is false. I do not owe $50 in Owenton and most of that to the proprietor of the Exchange Hotel, who I secured before I left, by putting in his possession personal property enough to cover his debt.

The charge that I got away with his overcoat is false. I borrowed his coat and wore it thirteen miles to the railroad station, and left it with orders to be sent back to him.

People would infer from the article that I had deserted my family, which I am far from doing and will ever strive to support and cherish them.

Please give this place in your paper that the people of Maysville, my adopted home, may know the true story. Very truly yours,
 HARRY WENSEL.

Sonora Land—Notice.

Parties who have applied to me to purchase interests in the 40,000 acre tract of Sonora land, are informed that the subscription paper is now ready, and has already a number of subscriptions on it. It is important that the purchase should be closed as early as possible, as the information I have recently received is, that other companies are making purchases of valuable lands there. I will be pleased to furnish full information to any others who may desire to invest in that wonderful country. Ten cents per acre is "cheaper than dirt."

GEORGE W. SULSER, Court street.

A Terrible Fire.

What a thrill of terror passes over us when we read the record of some fearful devastation by fire, and yet it is a fact that thousands are daily being consumed by the inward fire of fever, caused by consumption of the lungs, which could be subdued by Dr. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery."

OUR PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

Notes and Comments by Superintendent Galbraith.

CORINTH.

I found that the old school house had been replaced with a very substantial new one, which was neatly painted, and presented a very pleasing appearance. The census report shows a pupilage of 78, there were 58 on roll and 26 present. The trustees are Robert Pompell, Nelson Craycraft and George Campbell. They have visited the school, and of the patrons, Harrison Hitt, Amos Stevenson and wife and John G. Donaldson.

D. W. Clark is teaching his first term here. He has used the Teachers' Library as far as practicable, and is thoroughly in earnest in his work. And his earnest work has inspired such enthusiasm among the pupils and interest in the district, as to bring out a better attendance than the school has enjoyed for years. The patrons believe in him, and his classes show that it is not without cause. The discipline of the school is excellent.

CHESTER.

Census report, 285; number on roll, principal's room, 85, assistant's room, 84, total, 169; pupils present: principal's room, 45, assistant's room, 40, total, 85. In the assistant's room, Nannie Maud Wood, Frank Holiday, Belle Yazel, Willie Tolle, Ida May Cliner, Thomas Sweet, Delia Spencer and Mattie Young have lost no time.

The trustees, C. P. Dietrich, Henry Dietrich and Henry Ryder, have visited the school. Of the patrons, Mrs. Laura Mason, George Young and Thomas Cook have visited the school.

The school is taught in two rooms. The principal's is taught by H. B. Collins, who has spent several sessions in the National Normal University at Lebanon, Ohio. He takes an educational journal and uses written work very extensively in his school. His written recitation in grammar was well arranged. A pupil was sent to the board and step by step as the lesson was developed wrote it out, and each pupil wrote the same on his slate. This, if skillfully managed, can not fail to secure attention. Mr. Collins shows himself to be conversant with the most practical methods of instruction by their application in the school room.

I found the assistant's department under the management of Miss Sue Grant; and the first thing that greeted me on entering the room was the neat appearance of the slates. The little folks were at their writing exercises, and you only need to have seen their work to have been pleased. Miss Grant has a large room and many grades, but she does not fail, for all that, to advance her pupils right along with the pupils of our city schools. They were working like a bee hive, and as I noted the advancement made by the pupils since last fall, on my last visit, and listened to them read, and their other exercises, I concluded the trustees of Chester knew what they were about when they secured the services of Miss Grant, consecutively from year to year. If you don't believe she has nice work in her room, go up some fine morning and visit her school.

Sensational Attempted Suicide.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., March 29.—When the Shore Line train from New York was nearing Norwood, six miles from here, Miss Jessie Thurston, a mid-lagged lady who was in the parlor car, suddenly got up, and walking quickly to the door, made a spring from the platform. Her mother, Mrs. Kendall, aged seventy-two years, who had followed her, caught her skirts in an endeavor to restrain her and was carried off with her daughter. The train which had been running at the rate of forty miles an hour, was checked as soon as possible and backed to the scene of the attempted suicide. Mrs. Kendall was found with her right arm broken in four places and with bruises about her head and body. Her daughter, strange to say, received no other injury than a few scratches about the face from the sandy roadbed. The lady and daughter were on their way home to Portland, Me., from Jacksonville, Fla. It is said that Miss Thurston's mind had been upset by the recent death of a relative in Florida, and that of late she had acted very irrationally.

Snow Storm Abated.

DES MOINES, Iowa, March 29.—What has been the worst late snow storm in the west since 1857 abated yesterday, leaving many deep drifts. Lightning flashes were noticed all night, and telegraph service was badly crippled. Street car travel was partially resumed yesterday afternoon, and many sidewalks are only passable single file. The bulk of spring wheat has been sown, and fears are felt as to its proper germination.

Going it on Their Own Hook.

CHICAGO, March 29.—The executive committee of the United Labor party have passed the following resolution in reference to the city ticket: "Resolved, That we repudiate all idea of fusion, trade or dicker with the candidates of either the Republican or Democratic parties, and reiterate herein that every candidate nominated at the convention of our party will remain on the ticket until the polls are closed on election day."

A Sensational Story.

GALLIPOLIS, O., March 29.—Lewis Short, just bound over for firing attorney Holcomb's house, says that P. C. Hawkins, of this city, tried to get him to shoot Holcomb because Holcomb had said once in court: "There sits Pinck Hawkins with a lie in his throat." Also that Hawkins had offered him $100 to do the job.

Changing a Priest.

NEW YORK, March 29.—Rev. Dr. James T. Curran, formerly assistant priest to Dr. McGlynn, at St. Stephen's, and who was transferred to St. Patrick's church when Dr. McGlynn was suspended, has now been transferred to temporary charge of St. Mary's church at Ellenville, N. Y. It is reported that Dr. Curran is to be shelled in a country pastorate because he defended Dr. McGlynn in a speech at Jones' Wood on St. Patrick's Day.

Wants His Clothes Cleaned.

CHICAGO, March 29.—Michael Gleason, who was struck by an engine of the Illinois Central road while crossing the track at Thirty-eighth street, and thrown over the smoke stack, engine and cab, landing in the tender with only a slight abrasion, was very mad this morning. He threatens to sue the company unless it sends for and has cleaned by next Sunday his best suit of clothes soiled by his descent among the oil cans and coal dust.

A New Way to Pay Old Debts.

Shakespeare tells how this can be accomplished in one of his immortal plays, but debts to nature must be paid on demand unless days of grace be obtained through the use of Dr. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery." It is not a "cure all" but invaluable for sore throat, bronchitis, asthma, catarrh, consumption, and all diseases of the pulmonary and other organs, caused by scrofula or "bad blood." Scrofulous ulcers, swellings and tumors are cured by its wonderful alternative action. By druggists.

EUGENE ASHTON, the young Kentucky elocutionist, recited the other evening at an informal reception given by Mrs. Frank Leslie, of New York.

Most Excellent.

J. J. Atkins, Chief of Police, Knoxville, Tenn., writes: "My family and I are beneficiaries of your most excellent medicine, Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption; having found it to be all that you claim for it, desire to testify to its virtue. My friends to whom I have recommended it, praise it at every opportunity."

Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption is guaranteed to cure coughs, colds, bronchitis, Asthma, croup and every affection of throat, chest and lungs. Trial bottles free (Large size $1.00) at the Drug Stores of J. C. Pecor & Co., and S. P. Campbell & Co., of Aberdeen Ohio.

Brace Up.

You are feeling depressed, your appetite is poor, you are bothered with headache, you are fidgety, nervous and generally out of sorts, and want to brace up. Brace up, but not with stimulants, spring medicines, or bitters, which have for their basis very cheap, bad whiskey, and which stimulate you for an hour, and then leave you in worse condition than before. What you want is an alternative that will purify your blood, start healthy action of liver and kidneys, restore your vitality, and give renewed health and strength. Such a medicine you will find in Electric Bitters, and only 50 cents a bottle at the drug stores of J. C. Pecor & Co., and S. P. Campbell & Co., of Aberdeen Ohio.

Bucklen's Arnica Salve.

It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction, or money refunded. Price 25 cents per box. For sale by J. C. Pecor & Co.

ABERDEEN ITEMS.

The wharfoat is here and the citizens should make it their interest to sustain it. That it is a much needed institution, no one will gainsay. It is something our merchants especially need as in case of receiving freights at night there has been no protection from the weather, and no one to watch it, thereby causing a trip across the river, and unnecessary expense. And then it is an addition that will carry business with it. Steamboats naturally dislike to land at points where there is no wharfoat. Give the proprietor encouragement and make it a permanent thing.

BY ACCLAMATION.

Hon. A. P. Gooding Declared the Democratic Nominee for Representative from Mason County.

The convention soon finished its work yesterday afternoon. At the appointed hour, Chairman E. L. Worthington rapped for order, and the busy throng that filled the court room were soon seated and paying respectful attention to the proceedings.

Secretary George W. Rogers read the list of delegates as had been handed in. Maysville Nos. 1 and 2 were represented as reported yesterday. The other precincts were reported as follows:

Dover—John A. Strout, W. B. McMillan and G. S. Anderson.
Minerva—C. M. King and J. A. Frazee.
Germantown—Isaac Woodward, Dr. C. C. Coburn, F. A. Browning and S. D. Rigdon.
Sardis—Robert Marshall and J. M. Ball.
Mayslick—John Archdeacon, Mark Brannon, John Peed, Duke Watson, Alex Dougherty and J. D. Peed.

Lewisburg—J. R. King and J. B. Key.
Washington—T. M. Downing, Jas. Smith, Walter Baldwin and Arthur Wood.
Murphyville—W. S. Clift and Pe'e Prather.
Fern Leaf—Daniel Norris and J. S. Asbury.
Chester—E. W. Hutchison, W. R. Hickey.

At the conclusion of the reading, a motion prevailed declaring the list, as read, the accredited delegates from the various precincts.

Orangeburg had not reported, no credentials had been presented. Thomas Wood moved that any of the delegates appointed by the Orangeburg precinct meeting last Saturday be authorized to act for that precinct without credentials. The motion was carried. Nominations were declared in order. County Attorney C. D. Newell presented the name of Hon. A. P. Gooding. 'Squire J. M. Ball, of Sardis, nominated A. K. Marshall, Esq. J. R. King, of Lewisburg precinct, stated that he was authorized to withdraw the name of Mr. Marshall.

Mr. King, added: "I want this convention to know that I am going to support the nominee whoever he may be—that's the kind of a Democrat I am." He was loudly applauded. 'Squire Earnshaw got the floor and said he understood the Dover delegates had intended to present his name as a candidate, but it was evident to all that Hon. A. P. Gooding was the choice of the county. He therefore moved that Mr. Gooding be nominated by acclamation, and hoped some of Mr. Marshall's friends would second the motion. Captain George W. Tudor said he was a Marshall man and he would second 'Squire Earnshaw's motion. Captain Tudor's second was followed by one from 'Squire Ball and the motion was put and carried amid applause.

Chairman Worthington declared Mr. Gooding the Democratic nominee for Representative from Mason County to be voted for at the next August election. The nominee was waited on by a committee, composed of Judge Coons, County Clerk Ball and Isaac Woodward. On being conducted to the stand, he thanked the convention for the honor and accepted the nomination in a few remarks, after which the meeting adjourned sine die.

During the discussion over the Orangeburg delegation, J. B. Peters said he was there from that precinct, but he wasn't there to act for any one but himself. He understood that one of the candidates to come before the convention was pledged to support a "certain Dr. Stafford" for United States Senator, and if that was the case then Orangeburg, wanted to withdraw. Lee Hull very modestly addressed the convention and said "Mr. Peters belonged to the Marshall faction, and that there were a good many Democrats in Orangeburg who didn't exactly agree with him (Mr. Peters) on the United States Senatorship business."

Entertainment.

The entertainment to be given this evening in the room adjoining Shackelford's pharmacy, by the ladies of the M. E. Church, South, promises to be a pleasant affair. Some of the best singers in the city will take part. The tableaux will prove an interesting and enjoyable feature of the evening. The admission is but 25 cents, and as the proceeds will go towards furnishing a new church, there should be a crowded house. The programme will consist of music and a series of tableaux—the tableaux illustrative of the following subjects: A Scene from "Midsummer Night's Dream,"—"Titania and Bottom." Rip Van Winkle and the Goblin Crew. A Game of Chess—in two parts. About Ben Adam's Vision. Guardian Angels. Simply to Thy Cross I Cling. Mary, Queen of Scots, Signing Abdication. NO PROSPECTS FOR WAR.

GERMANY MUST LIVE AT PEACE WITH FRANCE AND RUSSIA.

Minister Flourens Unbowed Himself to a St. Petersburg Correspondent—Another Arrest of a Priest in Ireland—A Senseless Panic in London—Foreign Notes.

PARIS, March 29.—A sensation has been caused by the publication of a reported conversation between M. Flourens, French minister of foreign affairs, and the correspondent of the Novoye Vremya, of St. Petersburg. The story is officially declared to be incorrect, but little value is attached to the denial.

According to the published report M. Flourens said: "I entered the office with the full conviction that the key to the European policy was in St. Petersburg. While Russia is at war with Germany is impossible. Germany, by the chance of her states disuniting, would suffer more than any other power by defeat; therefore she has no other course but to live on good terms with Russia and with us. Russia came forward for us in a moment of danger, and we will not remain with folded arms should she be endangered." M. Flourens professed that he had little fear of the new alliance of Italy, Austria and Germany, Italy being mainly a naval power, Germany and Austria could give her nothing and she would have no interest in taking part in a war against France. He believed that the Bulgarians themselves, or the Turkish government would expel the regents, and Russia would have no need to interfere in Bulgaria. The situation there, he thought, was unwelcome. Touching France's relations with England, he said no complications were likely to arise. England would sooner or later quit Egypt, and she could not dream of continental conquests.
